

NNED Annual Spring Conference to Offer Expanded Program for Youth

Q. Who is invited?

YOU! The NNED Annual Spring Conference is open to everyone, regardless of age. We encourage congregations to take advantage of this opportunity to connect with each other.

Q. What will we do?

The Spring Conference offers times for Worship, our Annual Awards Ceremony and Banner Parade, a dynamic Keynote Address by Linda Stout, and workshop choices. We will be offering multigenerational workshops for all ages, some specifically for senior youth (ages 14-18) as well as some for adults. You are free to attend the workshops that speak to you. The Red Jacket Inn is also home to Kahuna Laguna, Northern New England's first indoor waterpark. Passes to Kahuna Laguna are available to our conferees at a reduced rate of $15, good for the duration of our Conference.

Q. When is it?

Registration opens at 5:00 pm on Friday, April 13th. The Conference ends on Saturday, April 14th at 4:00 pm.

Q. Where will we stay?

We will be staying at the Red Jacket Inn in North Conway, NH. Youth ages 12-18 have the option of staying with their families by reserving a room at the Red Jacket or arranging for home hospitality, OR attending with an adult sponsor and sleeping in a shared space with either Junior Youth (ages 12-14) or Senior Youth (ages 14-18). These shared spaces will be offered at no additional cost and will include cots and linens. (Youth attending with an adult sponsor must have the approval of their DRE or minister. Adult sponsors must also have a background check on file with the NNED.)

Q. Why should we go?

Here is an opportunity to gather with 150+ Unitarian Universalists from NH, ME, and VT! We will laugh, share stories, learn more about our neighbors, and meet new friends.

Q. How do we sign up!

Visit www.nned.uua.org to download a registration form. Be sure to register by 3/23/12!
