

LOVE &
LIGHT
FROM THE MOUNTAINS
TO THE SEA

Justice Making Together

2012 NNED Annual Spring Conference

April 13-14, 2012
Red Jacket Inn North Conway, NH

Congregations in ME, NH and VT join for the Annual Meeting and Awards Ceremony of the Northern New England District —bring your church banner, network with UUs from other congregations, share in worship and discussions, and celebrate a vibrant Unitarian Universalism in the NNED!

FRIDAY EVENING

Banner Parade
Youth Led Worship
Awards Ceremony

SATURDAY

Worship
Keynote Address
Workshops
NNED Business Meeting

CHILDREN—through age 11

Programming for children is available for Friday evening and Saturday during the conference.

YOUTH—ages 12-18

Youth have the option of staying with their families at the Red Jacket or attending with an adult sponsor and sleeping in a shared space with either Jr. Youth (ages 12-14) or Sr. Youth (ages 14-18).

Keynote Address by Meck Groot and Rev. Deborah Holder

What vision for justice work can inspire us to live our UU values everywhere we go? The Beloved Community as envisioned by people of faith such as Dr. King is bold, radical and transformative. At its heart is a concept of justice rooted in the practice of love. We will consider how this powerful vision invites us to engage justice making together as our ministry.

